Background: Simeon is currently kayaking from Sydney to Hobart to raise awareness of environmental issues such as Gunns proposed pulp mill, and to raise funds for projects which will protect Tasmania's forests and marine environment.

His 2000km trip has captured the public imagination and received national coverage BUT he is also a Salsa Teacher.

Simeon teaches in Byron Bay, with classes which focus on attitude, fun and cheekiness. Simeon learnt Salsa in San Francisco, then travelled throughout South America, giving him a unique combination of technical ability and "street" style. He teaches fun, sassy moves you'll never forget.
